Dear Parents,

Associate Director
Rabbi Mordechai Eisenberg

Although most of the children in our school behave wonderfully, we unfortunately have had occasional problems with students of our school damaging school equipment and the property of the Day School students. We MUST take a strong stance on this matter.

- Anything contained in the Day School student's desk may not be touched.
- Any wall displays may not be tampered with.
- No student may write or erase anything on a dry erase board without a teacher's permission.

Any child that is found willfully damaging school or student's property in any way will not be allowed back in the school the following week. If it happens more than once, the continuation of the student in the Hebrew School will be in jeopardy.
